Why we collect and use your information

Pupil information

5. We collect and use your information:
 - to support your learning
 - to monitor and report on pupil attainment progress
 - to provide appropriate pastoral care
 - to assess the quality of our services
 - to keep children safe
 - photos are used for identification purposes (safeguarding), and celebration purposes (to record work, classes and school events)
 - to meet the legal duties placed upon us by the Department for Education
 - to comply with the law in general
 - for site safety and security
 - to protect public monies against fraud
 - to streamline systems

Family information

6. We collect and use information about our pupils' families:
 - to fulfil our legal obligations
 - for the admissions process
 - for communication and reporting purposes
 - for safeguarding and welfare purposes
 - to keep families informed about events and emergencies
 - in order to process payments
 - to gather feedback about our work
7. Under the General Data Protection Regulation (UK GDPR), the lawful bases we rely on for processing pupil and family information are:
 - Article 6(a) – Your consent (for anything which does not fall into the purposes explained below)
 - Article 6(c) - Compliance with our legal obligations as set out in the Education Act 1996 (as amended). We are required to share information about our pupils with the (DfE) under regulation 3 of The Education (Information About Individual Pupils) (England) Regulations 2013. In addition, there are extensive statutory obligations that a school is subject to – further details about these are available from our Data Protection Officer.
 - Being necessary for us to carry out tasks that are in the Public Interest
8. The ways we collect and use sensitive pupil and family information are lawful based on: your explicit consent; for compliance with certain legal obligations, or for exercising certain legal rights; for protecting a person's vital interests in an emergency; for health and public health reasons; or for carrying out tasks that are in the substantial public interest including for safeguarding purposes.
9. Please see our Special Category Data Policy document for full details of these lawful bases for processing this data.

Marketing purposes

10. Where a family member gives us consent, we may send them marketing information by text message or email, such as for promoting school events, campaigns or charities. Consent can be withdrawn at any time by contacting us (see the Contacts section) or by [schools insert any other method utilised to gather/manage consent eg Microsoft/Google form link].

Automated decision making and profiling

11. We don't use any of your personal information to make automated decisions about you, or to profile you. If this changes in the future, privacy notices will be updated to explain both the processing and your right to object to it. [Schools – if you are processing in this manner, discuss with the DPO team immediately who will provide advice around the wording of this section and ensure other documentation, such as DPIA is in place]

How we collect pupil and family information

12. We collect pupil information using admission forms completed by parent/carer when a pupil joins our school, data collection forms, CCTV cameras, information produced from our day-to-day interaction with pupils, and other information provided by; parents/carers, the previous school/provisions, local authorities, NHS, Police, the Department for Education (DfE) and by secure file transfer Common Transfer File (CTF).
13. We sometimes audio/ video record sessions/lessons/assessments for pupil or staff development and assessment. This will generate personal data including pupil images, names, contributions, and will be protected, processed, and retained in the same way as all personal data, in line with our Trust's Data Protection Policies and in accordance with our other policies including Acceptable Use, Off Site Working and Bring Your Own Device policies, as well as our Retention Schedule.
14. Whilst most of the pupil information you provide to us is mandatory, some of it is requested on a voluntary basis. We will let you know, when we ask you for information, whether you are required to provide the information and your rights in relation to this.

How, where and for how long we store pupil and family information

15. We store pupil information securely on the School's IT network (Schools, please indicate where this is hosted, cloud based? Run by which provider? Safeguards in place?). Secure storage is provided for paper based records.
16. We only keep the information for the length of time we need it for, as shown in our data retention schedule. For more information on our data retention schedule, please visit: [Insert link to retention document]
17. We are currently following the instructions of the Independent Inquiry into Child Sexual Abuse (IICSA) which states that student records should not be destroyed until this inquiry is complete.
18. We dispose of personal information securely when we no longer need it.

Who we share pupil information with

19. We may routinely share pupil information with:
 - Schools that the pupils attend after leaving us
 - Feeder schools
 - Our local authority
 - Other relevant local authorities
 - Our Governing Body
 - Universities
 - Employers/training providers where references are requested
 - Work experience providers
 - The Department for Education (DfE) Inc. Learner Record Services and the National Pupil Database
 - Police
 - NHS (agencies and services)/School Nurse
 - External systems used by the School to carry out day to day processes and requirements. For example, and not limited to; SIMS, Teachers to Parents, parent portal – Insight, School payments.
20. For information about who specifically we share your child's information with please ask at the school office.

International Transfers

21. Your personal information may be transferred outside the UK and the European Economic Area ('EEA'), including to the United States. Where information is transferred outside the UK or EEA to a country that is not designated as "adequate" in relation to data protection law, subject to an adequacy decision by the EU Commission, the information is adequately protected by the use of International Data Transfer Agreements and security measures, and other appropriate safeguards. EU Commission approved standard contractual clauses or a vendor's Processor Binding Corporate Rules. For more information on the international transfers mechanism used, please contact us at the details set out below.

Freedom of Information Act and Environmental Information Regulations 2004

22. As a public body, our Trust and schools are subject to requests made under the above legislation. However, we will never disclose personal data in our responses to these requests where to do so would contravene the principles of data protection.

Why we regularly share pupil information

23. We do not share information about our pupils with anyone without consent unless the law and our policies allow us to do so.

Department for Education

24. The Department for Education (DfE) collects personal data from educational settings and local authorities via various statutory data collections. We are required to share information about our pupils with the Department for Education (DfE) either directly or via our local authority for the purpose of those data collections, under regulation 5 of The Education (Information About Individual Pupils) (England) Regulations 2013.
25. All data is transferred securely and held by DfE under a combination of software and hardware controls, which meet the current government security policy framework.
26. For more information, please see 'How Government uses your data' section.

Local Authorities

27. We may be required to share information about our pupils with the local authority to ensure that they can conduct their statutory duties under the Schools Admission Code, including conducting Fair Access Panels.

Requesting access to your personal data, and other rights

28. Under data protection law, pupils have the right to request access to information about them that we hold, and in some cases, parents can make the request on the pupil's behalf, although this will be subject to the pupil's consent if they are deemed to be competent to understand the request and any implications. [primaries delete].
29. Parents also have the right to access their child's educational record. (academies delete)
30. Family members/carers also have the right to request access to information about them that we hold.
31. You also have the right to:
 - be informed about the collection and use of your personal data.
 - have inaccurate personal data changed, or completed if it is incomplete.
 - erasure, often known as the 'right to be forgotten'; however this does not apply where, amongst other things, processing is necessary to comply with a legal obligation.
 - restrict the way we are using your information, although, as above this is a limited right.
 - object to the way we are using your information; though other than for marketing purposes, this is also limited as above.

- Where we rely on your consent to collect and use your data, you have the right to withdraw that consent. If you do change your mind, or you are unhappy with our use of your personal data, please let us know – our contacts are in section 2.14 at the end of this document.
- You also have rights in relation to automated decision making and profiling, though these are not currently relevant as we don't carry out automated decision making or profiling.
- Finally, the right to complain about the way we use your personal information to the ICO, or to seek compensation through the courts

32. If you would like to request access to your data, or use any of the other rights listed above, please contact the school office in the first instance.

How Government uses your information

33. The pupil data that we lawfully share with the DfE through data collections:

- underpins school funding, which is calculated based upon the numbers of children and their characteristics in each school.
- informs 'short term' education policy monitoring and school accountability and intervention (for example, school GCSE results or Pupil Progress measures).
- supports 'longer term' research and monitoring of educational policy (for example how certain subject choices go on to affect education or earnings beyond school)

Data collection requirements

- To find out more about the data collection requirements placed on us by the Department for Education (for example; via the school census) go to <https://www.gov.uk/education/data-collection-and-censuses-for-schools>

The National Pupil Database (NPD)

34. Much of the data about pupils in England goes on to be held in the National Pupil Database (NPD).
35. The NPD is owned and managed by the Department for Education and contains information about pupils in schools in England. It provides invaluable evidence on educational performance to inform independent research, as well as studies commissioned by the Department.
36. It is held in electronic format for statistical purposes. This information is securely collected from a range of sources including schools, local authorities and awarding bodies.
37. To find out more about the NPD, go to <https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/national-pupil-database-user-guide-and-supporting-information>

Sharing by the Department

38. The law allows the Department to share pupils' personal data with certain third parties, including:

- schools
- local authorities
- researchers
- organisations connected with promoting the education or wellbeing of children in England
- other government departments and agencies
- organisations fighting or identifying crime

39. For more information about the Department's NPD data sharing process, please visit <https://www.gov.uk/data-protection-how-we-collect-and-share-research-data>.

40. Organisations fighting or identifying crime may use their legal powers to contact DfE to request access to individual level information relevant to detecting that crime. Whilst numbers fluctuate slightly over time, DfE typically supplies data on around 600 pupils per year to the Home Office and roughly 1 per year to the Police.
41. For information about which organisations the Department has provided pupil information, (and for which project) or to access a monthly breakdown of data share volumes with Home Office and the Police please visit the following website: <https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/dfe-external-data-shares>

How to find out what personal information DfE hold about you

42. Under the terms of the Data Protection Act 2018, you are entitled to ask the Department:
 - if they are processing your personal data
 - for a description of the data they hold about you
 - the reasons they're holding it and any recipient it may be disclosed to
 - for a copy of your personal data and any details of its source
43. If you want to see the personal data held about you by the Department, you should make a 'subject access request'. Further information on how to do this can be found within the Department's personal information charter that is published at this address <https://www.gov.uk/government/organisations/department-for-education/about/personal-information-charter>
44. To contact DfE: <https://www.gov.uk/contact-dfe>
